

Consent for Electronic Transmissions

The Company offers you the ability to receive documents electronically. This disclosure will help you decide whether you would like to consent to this electronic process or not. Please read this carefully.

If you consent, by entering your email address and selecting the "I Consent" box below, the Company will transmit documents to you related to your contract* by electronic means, to the extent that electronic transmission is consistent with applicable state and federal law. Any document that we send by electronic means, which complies with applicable law, will have the same force and effect as if that document was sent in paper format.

This Consent covers all electronic documents and communications as related to your annuity contract through the Company, which may include, but is not limited to, contract, prospectuses, prospectus supplements, statements of additional information, annual and semiannual reports, confirmation statements, annual or quarterly statements, administrative forms and any contract-related correspondence. Some correspondence may continue to be delivered by the US Postal Service for compliance reasons.

The Company will notify you of your documents availability by email. In order to view your electronic transmission, please access your account on LincolnFinancial.com.

In order to successfully receive electronic transmissions, it is recommended that your electronic device supports Windows 7® or above or Macintosh OSX; Adobe Acrobat Reader; has browser settings such as Internet Explorer 9.0® or above (Windows only), Google® Chrome® (Windows only), Apple Safari (for Mac and iPad), or Mozilla Firefox (Windows or Mac); a valid email address and security settings that allow per session cookies. The Company recommends that you keep electronic copies or print a copy of your received and completed documents.

The Company will only transmit documents to you electronically if you consent. Such consent is voluntary. You are not required to consent to electronic transmissions if you prefer not to do so. If the owner or joint owner has permitted electronic transmissions in the past, that authorization does not obligate the same procedure regarding this contract as well. If you choose not to consent to receive your documents electronically, contact your agent or the Company.

If you consent to receive documents electronically, the Company will provide you with a paper copy of any document sent electronically upon your request. The Company will not charge a fee for this service.

If you wish to revoke the consent to receive documents electronically and want to receive all future documents via paper mail, you may notify the Company by one of the methods shown below, otherwise this consent will continue until revoked.

If your email account changes we suggest that you notify your agent or the Company so that the Company's contact information for you remains current and accurate. You may contact us via the company web page as shown above, or by our toll-free telephone number 1-800-487-1485, or in writing via first class mail with sufficient postage to The Lincoln National Life Insurance Company PO Box 2348, Ft Wayne, IN 46801-2348.
